. WILD MAN AT LAWTON DEFIES HIS HUNTERS.

Reported to Have Assaulted Women and Children and Injured Men in Duels.

Lawton, Ok., April 7.- A wild man, of hideous appearance, ragged garments. emaciated features and lacerated body, has for the past two weeks been terrorizing the citizens of the southern and southwestern portion of the Chickasaw Nation, western portion of the Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory.

On several occasions he has assaulted women and children and legured men in duels who sought to capture him and restrain him from further operations.

He invariably makes his escape and shortly turns up in some other section of the country, and renews his operations.

Two beputs United States Marshals and a posse of citizens recently came in touch with him in a heavy thicket, but he made good his escape. Kood his escape.

All subsequent efforts at capture have been futile. No one knows his name not where he halls from.

An Unusual Display.

Probably the handsomest and largest display of hats ever made is now on exhibition in the big Ninth street show windows of Diel's Clothing Store, Olive street, at corner of Ninth.

Over eighty feet of window space is devoted to this display of new spring models of hats for men's wear.

The only Grand Dukes who ventured out of their pelaces were Nicholas. Boris and Michaelovitch, the first named representing the Emperor.

Even Grand Duke Vladimir, commander of the military district, was not present the explanation being that he was detained at the palace on account of sickless. The danger to the imperial family was regarded as especially great to-day, as it happened that this was the festival of the Immediate Conception, one of the strictest religious holidays. All business was suspended, The entire population was in the strictes and the lear of an untoward incident, in view of the activity of the terrorist, induced extraordicary precautions. Mounted gendarmes were stationed at the bridges and in the streets leading to the barracks of the regiment on the Horse Guard boulevard to keep back the rougher element, and ordinary spectators were not allowed to approach within a block.

The parade, instead of occurring in the usual open space before the barracks, took place within the riding school, being in every way a purely perfunctory affair, few foreign representatives and members of society being present.

After the trooping of the colors, the regiment marched to the Church of the Ascension, adjoining the barracks, where religious services were held.

WISHES TO FRUSTRATE ALLEGHENY'S GENEROSITY.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Pittsburg, Pa., April 7.-There was filed in the United States District Court here to-day by atterneys representing Ida Rahm Larkin of No. 67 East Fifty-third street, New York, an action against the city of Allegheny to restrain the municipality from giving free to the Pennsylvania Railroad a part of the Allegheny Park for a station.

Mrs. Larkin is a heavy property-holder in Allegheny, and she alleges that such action on the part of the Allegheny councils will be hurtful not only to her property, but to the city, as well as against the law.

erty, but to the city, as well as against the law.

Some nights ago the city councils of Allegheny voted to the Pennsylvania road a tract of park property in Allegheny without price, stipulating only that the road's new station to be built there should cost not less than $250,000. The property donated was worth about $250,000.

At this time City Solicitor Porter said there was trouble ahead for the city fathers, that they could not give away this property. No secret is made of the fact that Allegheny citizens get the New York woman to enter the suit in the United States Court, fearing to try the State courts in a suit against the Pennsylvania road, perhaps.
